A Complete Novel Each Week with the Evening World

Beginning Next Monday-For Ten Weeks, Ten Great Novels by Ten Famous Authors-One Novel a Week Will Be Printed in The Evening World. The First Novel of the Series Will Be "THE RETURN OF TARZAN." a Sequel to "TARZAN OF THE APES," by E. R. Burroughs.

ottled to-night and Priday, Warm colorly. FIN.

Copyright, 1914, by The Press Publi Co. (The New York World).

KATHERINE SHAW

AFTER TERRIBLE GALES

Big Liner, Buffeted by Storms,

Breaks Steering Gear and Has to Heave-to.

The Oceanic of the White Star line sea appeared to contend which should mong the passengers who came down

On Tuesday morning, while big sens gent got out of order and she was while the engineering crew worked or weather sie encountered the entire passage across. Never had her skipper or officers found old Father Atlantic in a worse temper. His moods were as who for almost a quarter of a cen-tury was United States Consul to Pekin. He retired some time ago and is of the opinion that what China needs is, to use his own phrase, "a henevolers

Put People in Terror, but None Is Injured.

LEGHORN, Italy, Jan. 15 .- Six vio-ent earthquake shocks caused a panio rushed in terror from their houses into the streets and many gathered in groups on the squares and other open twenty-seven minutes past nine. No tated, and huge waves rolled up along shocks started at twenty-five

IN CITY OF LEGHORN

cept that he was mad all the time. On board were Charles E. Tenney.

EARTHOUAKE PANIC

the gangplank.

OCEANIC ICE-COVERED

YORK, THURSDAY, JANUARY 15, 1914.

OPING BRIDE SLIPS OUT TO CATCH HER IN HOTE

Broker Says He Traced Girl Room in the Ansoni.

Last Night,

"SLAVE" CHARGE.

District-Attorney Refuses to Make Arrests Under the Mann Act.

Robert Marsden Shaw, the broker who charges Richard Darling, the routhful president of the Acme Safe mpany, with luring away his en-year-old bride after a to get the Federal authori-The United States District appropriated the suitcase to his autoff that he must show uses, for it contained a live baby.

to-day. He said that he wasn't of anything Shaw might try to him legally or otherwise his relations with Mrs. were innocent; he admitted unpleasant set of complications. said to-day he had traced his work last night. She regisnt. left last night before Shaw though Shaw told his lawyer, Joseph A. thay, he was certain she was smuggled out of the hotel after his arrival. Not all of the result of the husband's ent that when Mrs. Shaw came mobile at the Thirty-third street en-

HOTEL ANSONIA. They told Mr. Shay that he had trace istered there Tuesday. A man anher but did not register. The clerk betel yesterday. She lunched with a Darling's name instead of paying cash Mr. Shaw said he took a roo the same floor and spent much of the leor below it without learning any Early to-day he asked to be thing. Early to-day he asked to be oflowed to enter with the hotel de-

(Continued on Second Page.)

Fortune Sometimes Favors Those Whom She Afterward Destroys.

So you will see that Dame Fortune must be courted with care if she is to be won and her good will retained. TO WIN HER HAND.

Buy and judiciously conduct one of the execution of Democratic the business bargains advertised from and policies by Democrats.

65,540 World "Business Oppor tunity" Ads Last Year 41,403 More Than the Herald. TO KEEP HER GOOD GRACES.

Secure your earnings by fivesting in safe and value increasing Houses, Lots, Farms, &c.

92,945 World "Real Estate" 7,190 More Than the Herald.

Always Profit by World Ads. for Prosperity and the Com-

LIVE BABY FOUND

to take action against Darling department in the Lackawanna station the Mann White Slave law at Hoboken to-day. It would have been that his sympathies had led him into dented in at one end so that there was the little one was warmly dress my and, according to the hotel manage- after all the passengers had left at ment, left last night before Shaw Hoboken at the conclusion of the lower reached the hotel in search of her, trip from Barciay street. Passengers bound from Hoboken to New York were coming aboard when the boy saw the suit case, picked it up and hurried to the pier with it.

> lost property department. As he passed the suit case over the counter he heard a sound that caused him to call exdosen men fathered around, the suit case was opened and the baby, kicking and crying, was revealed. Henry Burns, the station master, sent suitcase and baby to Police Headquar-

MOON DEFIES WILSON IN CONGRESS SPEECH

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15 .- Representaant postmaster under the spoils system

He declared this measure did not mean spoils or plundgring, but instead the execution of Democratic principles the will of the President and the Pighter Racer Out of Danger. RACINE, Wis., Jan. 15.-Jack Racer welterweight fighter from Davenport, lows, who was rendered unconsciou fight with Barney Richter last night i out of danger. Racer was revived in the ring but later lapsed into a semiconscious condition and was hurried to a hospital. It was at first believed he Month Old Infant Had Been Deserted by Person Boarding Boat at Barclay Street.

In the first place folks don't cares A pillow on the bottom of the suit case

He was instructed to turn it in to the terme to the Hudson tube and took ters. The ciothing of the baby is of fine quality, new and clean, but bears no marks. Nor was there any mark on Declares House Post-Office Committee Will Do Its Duty Despite Threats of Veto.

ve Moon of Tennessee, Chairman of the Post-Office Committee, practically defield afternoon. In replying to the Presimittee was created to do its duty as I saw it and that it would not be swerved by admonitions from the Postmaster General or threats of veto from the Postmaster-General," he said, the coast. No serious damage to ship-

HIRED GUNMEN TO KILL LOYAL DRIVERS

Government Attorney Makes Sensational Charges at Opening of Trial To-Day.

MISTRIAL IS DEMANDED.

Defendants Allege Their Rights Have Been Violated by Statement of Prosecutor.

egun this morning before Judge John Killetts in the United States District ned in empanelling a jury, eighteen indicated that the trial would largely be influenced by the old stringgle be-tween labor unions and employers, and every venireman was closely questioned as to his feeling for or against unions. James Osborne jr., Absistant United States District-Attorney, opened the there was at least twenty feet high and case by briefly outlining the nature of was carrying everything before it. His Trice, was that the Government would prove that the chauffeurs con pired to tie up the mail service of New their fight. We also will show you how they even hired a band of gunmen to shoot up the loyal chauffeurs and thus obtain concessions they demanded," was was filmed over with ice and the win- Osborne. This went further than any dows of her pilot house stove in by big of the charges made in the bill of in seas, ventilators were dented like old dictment.

hats, and there were many pallid faces So much stronger were the ner that Mr. Trice moved that a mistrial be declared on the grounds that the cowere smashing over her hull, whipped stitutional rights of the defendants had nto water skyscrapers by a hard been violated. The Judge declared that

DECLARE STRIKERS BURNED

MAIL AUTOS. At the beginning of the afternoon sea-sion Attorney Price told the Judge that he had not had sufficient time to obtain his authorities to uphold his ple for a mistrial and Judge Willetts requested him to produce them on Friday. Assistant District-Attorney Osborne resumed his opening speech, telling of the action of the striking chauffeurs from the beginning to the close of the strike. He charged them with attempt ing to steal one mail truck, with burn-ing snother, and of beating up many quent objections from Mr. Price.

That the strikers even descended the use of "bean-shooters" in their warfare was asserted by Attorney Osborne vho said that he would prove that striker Eussillius made "bean-shoot-

The first witness called was Hebr. CHARLESTON, W. Va., Jan. 18.—Rowley, President of the Postal Trans- Ho. - and other buildings valued at The first witness called was Hebr Violent Shocks Lasting Five Hours length in regard to his company's their transport service and work done dur- when

> ACCIDENT TO MAJESTIC. lender Hits Her and She Is De

The accident which happened to the steamship Majestic at Cherbourg. about to start for this port, was explained this afternoon in a message reseived by the White Star line. It stated that while in port the Majestic had been orts was broken. A plate was quickly riveted over the Bernuiz the France Cattans West Indicators and the Meditorranean. Bornel the Mote America and the Meditorranean. Bornel the Mote America and the Meditorranean. Bornel the at 3 A. M. for Queen World Turn. Resurranton titles and General the America and the Meditorranean the Meditorranean Tork.

The Meditor of Cattana C however, and the liner got away

FROM FLOOD AS BIG DAM BURSTS

Waters Rush Through Valley in West Virginia, Spreading Peril in Wide Section.

PEOPLE RUN TO HILLS.

Wave 20 Feet High From Pulp Mill Feeder Threatens to Engulf Several Towns.

valley are fleeing to the hills and the

The dam was 1.0% feet wide at breast, backing the water up for three and a haif miles and dioiding three bil lion gallons of water. The dam was 20 feet high on the outside, 65 feet on the naide and built on a concrete tion 60 feet deep.

York by directing men to go out and THREE TOWNS IN PATH OF THE RUSHING WATER.

structure, gave way. At 11,20 thi forenoon a second and larger break oc ployees to release the immense of water through the aluice ways. The both sides of the dam.

Western Maryland Railros bridge at Schell, W. Va., it is believed will be responsible for the debris clos check for a time until the force of the flood carries it away.

The high water is expected to reach here late this afternoon and every preparation has been made to guard CUMBERLAND, Md., Jan. 15 -Infer mation was received at the offices of the Vestern Maryland Railway here at on to-day that the whole of the Stony and Paper Company, near Dobbin, W.

od fied to the hills. So far as known there has been no loss of life. At Harrison, W. Va., forty-serva-rent bore down the Western Maryland in furthering the cause of vio- FLOOD SWEEPS AWAY PROP ERTY WORTH $250,000.

port Service Company, who testified at more . 'n $250,000 were swept from four. tions shortly after noon when the min's section of the Wes Virginia Pulp and Paper Company dam collapsed, according to reports from Cumberland, Md. All the water in the six hundred sore reserve is mid to have been emptied into the Steny > Potomac, aiready ten feet higher than the flood mark, and is rushing upon Keyser and Pleamont. The telegraph station at Biaine and a number of STEAMSHIPS DUE TO-DAY.

ON EVE OF HIS WEDDING

RAILROAD OFFICIAL WHO ENDED LIFE ON EVE OF MARRIAGE.

RIGHARD D. LANKFORD.

TANGO POLICE RULE TO MAKE THE DANCE PROPER IN CHICAGO

Censor Prescribes Right Pose for Whirl and Jail May Yawn for Violators.

CHICAGO, Jan. 15 .- Major Funkouser, police onsor, to-day by posing two dancers showed the proper and improper way to dance the tango. Those chance of a ride to the police station in the patrol wagon, according to the cen-Md., known as the "tri-towns," are sor. The chief rules laid down against improper way to dance the tange are that bodies must not touch nor limbs interlock.

His rules for the proper way to dance the "Argentine whiri" are: right arm around partner, slightly shove her waist, her left arm resting on his right shoulder, his left and he right arm extending slightly upward six inches between bodies. terlocked, his arms around her should

The couple posed in the improper position while the censor gave his views tightly in each other's arms. The man's face is within two inches of the girl's. away. As for the space between-well, a osquito would be smothered to death other proper pastime. The improper inhave nothing against the tango. It is the suggestive, the more than suggestive, poses of it that we object to."

MRS. S. WEIR MITCHELL WITH HUSBAND IN DEATH

Widow Succumbs to Pneumonia Week After Demise of the Famous Doctor.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 15. - Mrs. 8 the became ill after the funeral of her late husband last week. Mrs. Mitchell begon College and R. E. inent in social affairs for more than Richard D. Lankford, Vice-President and Secretary of the Southern Railway, Ends Life With Gas in Bachelor Apartment.

SPENT LAST EVENING AT HOME OF FIANCEE

No Quarrel, Says Miss Nellie Patterson, to Whom He Was to Have Been Married Saturday.

to his friends, has been suffering from stoniges tree

GET YOUR SKATES ON! ICE IN CENTRAL PARK AS THE SNOW FALLS

Temperature Goes Up, Too, Grease the Sidewalks.

Snow began powdering the grave of the cold snap soon after 9 o'clock to-day. Yesterday it was fur coats, woolly gloves and car-fiapped fussy caps. To-day it is rubbers, umbrellas and "watch day it is rubber your step." for the thin layer of driving finkes made the streets greasy as but-

Lakes, but is moving eastward too far to the north for this part of the State to get much of it, The rising tempera-With the coming of the snow the red ball crept up the pole at the Central Furk lakes, including the Fifty-ninth street, Seventy-second street and One Hundred and Tenth street bodies of water. Skating has been going on merrily at Van Cortlandt fark since

Every skating Brooklynite likewise, who could get a chance to, shod himself or herself with steel and trolleyed to prospect Park (except those who went in autos), for this morning for the first was hoisted. The larger lake will not "There is just as much clean pleasure water is perfectly secure when the ice will accommodate five thousand skaters with comfort.

HUERTA'S FINANCE MINISTER RESIGNS

De la Lama, Now in Paris, Acts in Protest to Default of Interest Payment on Debts.

PARIA, Jan. 15 .- Adolfo de la Lama. recently arrived in Paris on a mission in connection with the finances of his country, to-day cabled his resignation to Gen. Huerta as a protest against the action of the Provisional President in repudiating the interest payments on the internal and foreign debts of Mexico. The Finance Minister said he was not informed of the Mexican Covernment's decision to default on the payments.

HE MET HIS FIANCEE EIGHTEEN Mr. Lankford was forty-six pears age. He came to Brooklyn in 1882 was connected with the street raily a large salary by the Huyler

The engagement of Mr. Lankford and Miss Patterson was announced about eight months ago. Miss Patterson at that time leased an apartment at No. and it was a venue, and it was been sequently furnished by Mr. Lankford. This was to have been their home after their marriage and Miss Patterson was there to-day when word came to her that her intended husband was dead.

that her intended number was been per-formed at the home of Harry S. Pat-terson by Rev. Charles Carroll, paster of the Lefavette Avenue Prosbyterian Church, and was to have been extensionly by immediate members of b families. All arrangements were o had been delayed for some time foli-ing the engagement because of the floulty experienced by Miss Potts in severing her business or

"Mr. Lankford called here last evening." said Miss Putterson this afternoon. "Indeed, he called almost every evening. I talked with him for about two hours after dinner and then retired to my room. He remained until almost 11 o'clock talking to my brother and his

"To all outward appearances M Lankford was in the best of spirits. We knew he had suffered from a stomach complaint and was subject to violent headaches, but we never imagined that the trouble was sections. I can conceive of no reason why be Mr. Lankford had no personal corvants in his apartment, but had house attendance. The valet in the Oumend is Evans Lynch, a negro, and Josephine Harrison is a maid.

Lynch was told by Miss Harrison shortly before noon that Mr. Lankford had not appeared and that there wan odor of gas in the hall outside ! apartment. Lyach got into the ford apartment by means of a opened the windows and invest The ciothing of Mr. Lankfor